This newsletter is also available on our Web Site. The WSJC Lions meet Tuesday, 12:15 P.M, at Denny's 2060 S. Bascom, Campbell.

This issue may be as brief as our last one but there are events coming up soon that you might be interested in and we would like to bring them to your attention. These include the date for the Christmas Party and a Dues Increase.

Upcoming Programs

Linda Lezotte of the SCV Water Dist. had to postpone but will be at a future meeting, possibly Dec. 6.

Upcoming Events

12/1 Campbell Community Toy Drive, Sonoma Chicken Coop, 200 E. Campbell Ave., 6:00-9:00. Cost $10 and unwrapped gift to be entered into a drawing for a Kindle Fire.

12/8 Christmas Mixer. At Intl. Culinary Inst, 700 West Hamilton. (at San Tomas) 6:00-8:00. Admission is an unwrapped toy or donation.

More information on the Above two events may be found at: <http://www.campbellchamber.com/>

12/27 NO MEETING

1/8 Pancake Breakfast – St. Lucys
(See poster at end for details)

2/6 Student speaker contest, 7:00 Denny's. Note that this is a Monday.

2/25 Poker Party fund raiser. Venue to be determined.

4/15 Pancake Breakfast – St. Lucys

Items from the 11/22 meeting

As note in the previous column, Linda Lezotte had to postpone but Lion Peter Van Dam brought a slide show of his pictures of the eye clinic 2 weeks ago. It turned out this fill-in was a very interesting show. We were all impressed by the preparations made by the Mexican local Lions for the clinic and the beauty of the area. There did not seem to be any recession in Mexico City which makes one wonder why people would want to leave to come here. Is the politicians answer to illegal immigration to make the economy so bad here that the flow will reverse?

11/29 Board Meeting

Budgetary issues were the main topic and it was decided that dues will have to be raised to $65 per 6 months to cover our increased costs.

There will be meetings 12/20 and 1/3 due to the close proximity of the Pancake Breakfast on Jan 8. and the need to coordinate activities.
