This newsletter is also available on our Web Site. The WSJC Lions meet Tuesday, 12:15 P.M, at Denny's 2060 S. Bascom, Campbell.

Board meeting for March will be Thursday March 24 at Shine Yen.

Upcoming Programs

Apr. 5 Dr. Art Low tells us what to do for dry, itchy eye allergies.

The Campbell Shop and Dine at Villa Ragousa was well attended by both our fellow Lions as well as the public. It seemed that there were about twice as many exhibitors and attendees as last year. Lion Ward won a door prize from Yellow Cab. That is 2 door prizes in 3 years.

Lions Larry Hernandez, Irma Auckerman, and Bert Caro are seen in front of our table at the Shop and Dine Expo.

The Campbell Mixer at the Marriott was also well attended by the public, politicians, and business people. Plenty of free snacks and drinks. I don't know why we don't attend more of these. Lion Art represented his business and Lion Ward represented the Lions.

Student Speaker Contest – Region Level

Our student speaker, Gabriel Gonzalez, won the zone contest unopposed and went on to the region contest on Wednesday, March 30, which was attended by WSJC Lions Ward Eister and Jim Keller. Competition was tough with Gabriel challenged by a very good speaker from Milpitas. (Sorry no details. Funny thing happened. Your editor forgot his pen to write the information down and picked up his GPS instead of his camera. Both are the same size and in similar cases. Oh well.)

Suffice to say that Gabriel will be going on to represent us at the District Contest to be held:

Sunday May 1, from 1:00 – 4:00 pm

Location: Berryessa Union School District Office

Address: 1376 Piedmont Road, San Jose, CA 95133

It appears that all the six regions will be competing for the $4,500 Scholarship Award.

Pancake Breakfast

April 17 is the date for our Pancake Breakfast fund raiser and is coming up fast. Sign-up sheets for the various jobs are circulating at the meeting. We can use all the help we can get. Tickets need to be sold and may be obtained from Lion Ed Pansullo. Or just tell people to show up. We will be happy to take their money at the door. Details are on the copy of the flier below.

Officers

Our nominating committee is now looking for a slate of officers for next year. In particular need are the 1st VP and secretary positions. If you are interested please let the committee know.

March 29 program

Jane Kennedy, representing the Campbell Historical Museum and Ainsley House, told us of the many events and activities available at the Museum and Ainsley house. At present there is a quilt exhibit at the Ainsley House and on April 28, author Mary Jo Ignoffo will talk about her book "Captive of the Labyrinth: Sarah L. Winchester". More details and information are at www.cityofcampbell.com/museum

It's OK to pretend we're Irish on St. Patrick's Day. We pretend we're GOOD on Christmas don't we?
